SYLLABUS
NEW TESTAMENT SURVEY BI 111

I. Course Description

Following a study of the intertestamental period, each book of the New Testament is studied as to its historical and geographical setting, theme, broad outline, and basic contribution to the total revelation of God to man.

II. Course Objectives

Upon successful completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- A. understand better how the early church bridged the cultural gap religiously between the Pharisees and the common people; politically between the Romans and the Jews; culturally between the Jews and the Gentiles
- B. list the New Testament books (spelled correctly)
 - 1. according to chronology,
 - 2. according to author,
 - 3. according to subject matter;
- C. construct a time line of the New Testament including events and books;
- D. think through the New Testament in chronological narrative form;
- E. give the location of specific content chapters in the New Testament;
- F. give the author, date, purpose of writing, distinguishing features, and key scripture of each book;
- G. give the major outline (Roman numerals and capital letters) of specified books of the New Testament;
- H. construct maps of the area involved in both Matthew and Acts, noting major events and places;
- I. identify interpretive problems (specified in class), present various solutions, select and defend one;
- J. trace certain specified doctrines and prominent subjects through the New Testament.

III. Course Learning Materials

- A. New Testament Survey, Gromacki-Baker
- B. The Bible--a translation, NOT a paraphrase.
- C. Outline Notes, Sellers

IV. Course Requirements

- A. Exams: There will be 4 sectional exams. Typically they will consist of 35 objective questions @ 2% each and 3 discussion questions @ 10% each. Study questions will be supplied in advance.
